CHATTER

By: "BWH"
If you want a very liberal education on what is going on with the young... just get with a crowd of teen-age girls and listen.

They talk about the new spring styles, dresses, blouses, coats, shoes, socks, skirts, slax, sweaters, granny gowns... they know what they like and do not like; they have good taste and are well versed on prices, fabrics and style.

The conversation will generally get around to diets. You would be surprised how calorie conscious young girls are. And while they are putting away a big hunk of chocolate cake, they are hoping the pounds they gain will be in the right places!

And... they all agree they are attracted to the simple things of life... meat.

But above all, every girl wants to look her best. And if you have a young girl or even an older one in your life, the happy is at hand to make her happy. We have some lovely suggestions for your Valentine.

A Jonathan Logan dress, comes in sizes from 5 to 15. Winter flowering prints, in the gayest colors; Italian silk linens in bright solid shades; a fine-drawn skimmer style; a two-piece ensemble of superb 100 per cent cotton knit with a tie leather belt; a paisley jersey, fully lined with a wide sash; a shirt that lengthens to a shift with push-up sleeves in a lovely blend... these are but a few and they are all priced under $20.00.

We will wrap them in the loveliest package, and if you don't get a heart-felt thrill by simply looking at her when she receives it... we will take it back!

Shop today for your Valentine. The place is Reley's Style Shoppe, 523 West 3rd.

HELEN HELP US!
— by Helen Bottel —

Shotgun Wedding Can Blast Life
Dear Helen: I'm taking tranquilizers to keep me from inading in a mental institution. Our teenage daughter tells me she is three months' pregnant by a man who is now in the Service. She thinks she is very much in love with him, and when she told him, he said he would marry her, but he doesn't love her. A week after he went away, he wrote that he had changed his mind, but thought it best to have it adopted out. He is of a different religion, you see, and says he couldn't get a divorce. My daughter doesn't want to give the baby up, and she can't support it, nor can I (I'm a widow). She keeps looking toward marriage as he solution. She is training for career, and can go on with the training, after this is over.

Please advise what to do? Can people live with themselves after putting a baby out for adoption? — F. S. D.
Dear F: Of course, because you're doing what is best for the child.

Putting a baby out for adoption is far better than putting three people through a mismatched and unhappy life. Both the young lovers were foolish—one no more than the other—but now the boy is wiser than your daughter. He's well aware a shotgun wedding doesn't make a marriage. —H.

Dear Helen: Here I am at the age of 18 and I feel my life is over. You see, I had to get married at 16. Now I have two little children. I love them very much but my husband doesn't love me. He keeps asking me when I'm leaving. He doesn't even bother with the children any more.

Dear Helen: My mother, Mrs. Mason Ross of Waverly, Ohio, loved the letters, but she is no longer here to enjoy them. Your readers helped greatly before her death. Thank you all so much. Daughter.

This column is dedicated to family living, so if you're having kid trouble or just plain trouble let Helen help YOU. She will also welcome your own amusing experiences. Address Helen Bottel in care of Hope Star.

Yanks Sign Up Players Fairly Fast

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — If the New York Yankees don't watch out they won't have a single holdout to talk about during spring training.
Mickey Mantle is the only big name outside the net and that is only because he is at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., recuperating from shoulder surgery.
When Mick is well enough to report to the club, hopefully during the first week of March at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., he will agree to the usual $100,000.
Ralph Houk, the general manager, left for Florida today. Before he departed he welcomed into the fold Jim Bouton, Joe Pepitone, Al Downing, Hector Lopez, Bill Stafford and Jack Cullen. The six signings were announced Tuesday at a mass news conference held in ex-Yank Phil Linz' restaurant.
It seems it was easier to deal with a team that finished sixth. "Most of the unsigned are kids," said Houk. "Well, Steve Hamilton hasn't signed. Yes, you could say there is a difference of opinion between us. But I wouldn't call it a problem."
Bouton, of course, has been a problem in the past. In 1964, he held out in New Jersey while the club was in Florida, and Houk threatened to fine him $100 a day until he signed.
The 26-year-old right-hander knew he had to take a cut after his troubles of last season. Bothered by an inflamed muscle in his right arm, he completed only two of 25 starts and dropped off to a 4-15 record. In 1963, he was 21-7 and in 1964 he had an 18-13 mark.
Bouton said Houk originally offered him $23,000, almost a 25 per cent cut from his 1965 salary of $30,000. After a meeting and a phone conversation they compromised on $27,000.

Porkers Sign Up Two Grid Players

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks signed two high school football players to grant-in-aids Tuesday on the first day of sign-ins for Southwest Conference schools.
At North Little Rock, assistant coach Wilson Matthews signed Tommy Dew, a 200-pound defensive end from North Little Rock. The Wildcats won the title in the Associated Press Arkansas high school football poll last fall.
Ronnie Hammers, a 225-pound end from Marshall, Tex., signed a pre-enrollment application with assistant coach Mervin Johnson. Hammers was a defensive guard for Marshall, which posted a 9-1 record and lost only to Texas semifinalist Texarkana.

Clay-Terrell Fight Seems About Set

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — Everything has been guaranteed for the world heavyweight boxing championship between Cassius Clay and Ernie Terrell in Chicago's International Amphitheatre March 29.
The fight itself was guaranteed when the Illinois State Athletic Commission formally approved the contract and renewed Clay's Illinois boxing license.
The billing of "the fight for the undisputed world heavyweight boxing championship" was guaranteed since Clay is generally recognized as the champion and Terrell is the titleholder as far as the World Boxing Association is concerned.
Clay was guaranteed $450,000 from all facets of the 15-round bout.
Terrell will receive 20 per cent across the board with a $50,000 guarantee from the live gate, plus $12,500 training expenses and $100,000 minimum from closed-circuit television.
The Black Muslims, an organization to which Clay belongs, were guaranteed something since the closed-circuit television showing is under the auspices of Main Bout, Inc., a five-member group including two representatives of the Black Muslims.
The Illinois State Athletic Commission was guaranteed little peace because no sooner had the contracts been signed before Clay wondered if he would get a "fair shake."
Commissioner Joe Triner assured Clay, "There is no such thing as a home-town decision in Chicago—if Muhammad Ali wins, he'll get the decision; if Terrell wins, he'll get the decision."
Wrote Hymn
The hymn, "Lead, Kindly Light," was written by John Henry Newman, an English Protestant who later became a Roman Catholic. He is generally known as John Henry Cardinal Newman.

Hockey Loop Expansion Is Discussed

NEW YORK (AP) — Dan Reeves ... Jerry Wolman ... Art Rooney ... Ralph Wilson ... Jack Kent Cooke.
This is a hockey expansion meeting?
Each among those mentioned above is an owner or at least a part owner of an American professional football team while Cooke also is president of the Los Angeles Lakers of the National Basketball Association.
Each, too, is included in a group seeking a franchise in the National Hockey League's planned second division.
The three-day expansion meetings, conclude today with 13 groups from eight cities in the running for the six hockey franchises. The cost of each franchise is $2 million and the new division is expected to start operating in October 1967.
Reeves, owner of the Los Angeles Rams of the National Football League, Wilson of the Buffalo Bills of the American League, and Cooke, part owner of the Washington Redskins of the NFL, head individual groups seeking a franchise for Los Angeles.
Wolman of the Eagles of the NFL is a minority stockholder of a Philadelphia hockey group while Rooney of the NFL's Steelers is among those representing Pittsburgh interests.
Most knowledgeable hockey people attending the expansion meetings expect Los Angeles and San Francisco-Oakland to be given the green light by the owners of the present big league hockey teams.
However, the owners will have to decide among five Los Angeles groups. Two delegations represent Pittsburgh while other cities in the running, each with a single franchise-seeking group, are Buffalo, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Vancouver, B.C. and Minneapolis-St. Paul.
The present NHL teams are Montreal, Toronto, Boston, New York, Chicago and Detroit.

Wheatmen Up, Down Goes Cornhuskers

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer
It was an active night on the basketball market.
The Wheatshockers went up, the Cornhuskers went down and Rice was unchanged.
Wichita's Wheatshockers, nearly invincible at home, made a shambles of Chicago Loyola's No. 3 ranking by beating the Ramblers 92-84. It was the 11th straight victory at home for the Shockers who have won 31 of the last 32 regular season games in Wichita and 59 of 63 in the last five seasons.
Nebraska's ninth-ranked Cornhuskers, meanwhile, dropped an 85-81 overtime decision at Oklahoma City when the Chiefs' Jerry Lee Wells scored two baskets in the final three seconds of the extra period.
It was the same old story for Rice at Houston. The Owls hung on against Arkansas until the final three minutes when the Razorbacks pulled away for a 76-71 victory — Rice's 26th consecutive loss.
In Syracuse, the Orangemen romped past Cornell 120-85 with Dave Bing doing most of the damage. Bing, a 6-foot-3 senior, scored 39 points and had 25 rebounds and eight assists as Syracuse ran its record to 14-3.
In other major games, Detroit's Dore Murrey led the Titans past touring St. Bonaventure 89-84. Boston College started slowly but broke away to a 101-80 victory over Massachusetts and Georgetown barely made it past Rutgers 78-73 in overtime.
Elsewhere, Utah walloped New Mexico State 131-94. Penn State scored 63 points in the second half and whipped Kent State 94-72. Georgia Tech hit 66 per cent of its first-half shots and rolled past Furman 110-68 and Texas edged Texas Christian 77-75.
Wichita got 25 points and 18 rebounds from Warren Armstrong and ended Chicago Loyola's winning streak at 14 games. Kelly Pete hit 19 for the Shockers, defeating Missouri Valley conference champs, who now are 11-6.
Corky Bell had 26 points and Billy Smith 25 for the Ramblers, who suffered their second loss in 18 starts. The other setback came against Oklahoma City, which spent Tuesday bounding and finally beating Nebraska.
The Chiefs tied the score on Gary Gary's 20-footer with regulation time running out. But Nebraska opened a four-point bulge in the extra session before Wells rallied Oklahoma City.
The Cornhuskers held a 61-77 bulge but Wells hit from the side and Jim Ware, the country's leading rebounder, scored two foul shots for the tie.
Then Wells, who finished with 27 points, grabbed a jump ball and put Oklahoma City ahead 83-81 with three seconds remaining. He hit again after Nebraska lost the ball on the pass in.

Yerger and Ashdown Split Two

By CALVIN MULDREW
It was one for one last night in Harris gym when Yerger's Senior girls lost 34-39, and the Senior boys won 77-67.
In the top first, the Yerger boys moved out with a 4 point lead. Yerger began to fill and Ashdown tied the score with free throws, 8-8.
Yerger lead at the end of the first period, 17-15.
In the second period, the two stomp over in a skirt to place the teams were playing a tight, but exciting game. Yerger and Ashdown in the first 4 minutes were fighting for the lead. Ashdown gained the lead. Johnny Smith again 29-29.
Ronald Stuart in the final second of the game put Yerger ahead 35-33, but at the end of the third period the score was tied up 49.
Tight as can be in the fourth period, Yerger and Ashdown were shooting it out. With 3 minutes left to play, Yerger slowed down the pass, causing Ashdown to foul. Yerger proved to have the best eye as they won, 77-67.
For Yerger, Ronald had 32 points, J. Smith had 19 points. For Ashdown, J. Green had 23 points.
In the girls' game, Yerger had the lead at the end of three periods. Ashdown caught and passed them in the third period to win 34-39.
Yerger, in the first and second periods, was leading 8-7, and 20-16.
Ashdown moved beside Yerger. A free throw from Muldrew and a field goal by Young gave Yerger the lead at the end of the period, 30-27.
In the fourth and final period, Ashdown went at it again. This time scoring 12 points over Yerger to win, 34-39.

Reports May Has Signed for $125,000

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A sports columnist has reported that Willie Mays already has signed a $125,000 contract that will make the San Francisco Giants' center fielder the highest-paid player in baseball history.
But club Vice President Charles (Chub) Feeney says, "I think the report is a little premature. We'll have an announcement about that in a few days."
Jack Hanley, who writes for a series of northern California newspapers and travels with the Giants, wrote Tuesday that Mays had signed his contract the day before at Candlestick Park.
A $125,000 contract would represent a $20,000 raise for the National League's Most Valuable Player of 1965.
Ted Williams once was reported as receiving $125,000 for a season when he played for the Boston Red Sox.
"I suspect the $125,000 for Williams might be a little high," Feeney said last month. "But, regardless, Willie will probably top all figures."
The Giants make it a policy never to announce salary figures.

Golf Course Dress Brings Discussion

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Is it proper for a girl to wear Bermuda shorts—instead of a skirt—on the golf course?
It most certainly is, a cross section of American femininity insisted today, rising to the defense of a well-known U.S. women's tournament golfer forbidden to wear shorts in an exhibition match in Sydney, Australia.
"It's ridiculously old-fashioned," Clifford Ann Creed of Alexandria, La., fumed when she got the word from the Ladies Golf Union. "I think the Australians are going to have to learn to get with it."
"Besides, I have 40 pairs of shorts in my wardrobe."
Sports and show personalities rallied to Clifford Ann's side, contending the ban violates women's rights.
"Women golfers have been dressing like dowdy housewives for years," said Gussie Moran of Los Angeles, who shocked Wimbledon tennis galleries more than a decade ago by appearing on the center court in tight-fitting lace panties. "Since I've been old enough to wear lipstick, I've considered pants safer than skirts."
Mrs. Hayes Alan Jenkins, the former Carol Heiss, the pretty onetime world figure skating queen, said she thought shorts were perfectly all right for any sports appearance.
"It's all a matter of how they're cut," Carol added. "Anything you wear can be in bad taste if it's cut too tight or shows too much. I think it's all a question of how they're cut."
"A skirt can be more embarrassing to a woman than a double bogey," Clifford Ann said.
"It becomes very difficult to stoop over in a skirt to place the ball."
Joseph C. Dey, executive director of the U.S. Golf Association, said his organization was faced with a similar problem in 1952 when lady golfers protested against a ban on shorts.
"We examined the matter thoroughly from all angles," the bosomy actress purred. "The obvious move — we submitted to the women's preference."
Jayne Mansfield, currently appearing at a local night club (Latin Quarter) in little more than eye shadow, called the Australian ruling "utterly primitive."
"The next thing you know," the bosomy actress purred. "they'll be taking the word 'hole' out of golf."
"Tennis," whispered an associate.
"I mean tennis, darling."

2nd Round in County Cage Meet Tonight

The second round of play begins tonight at 6:30 in the Hempstead County Tournament with Blevins as the host.
Guernsey and Saratoga Junior girls meet at 6:30, followed by the Saratoga and Blevins Junior boys at 7:30. The final game of the night at 8:30 sees Hope Senior girls going against Spring Hill.
In the opening round of the meet the Hope Junior girls defeated Spring Hill 38 to 25; the Guernsey Junior Girls downed Blevins junior girls 43 to 23 and Saratoga's Senior boys licked Spring Hill 69 to 37.

Chamberlain Lifted for First Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The New York Knickerbockers benched Wilt Chamberlain. It wasn't a decision by the Knicks but rather their play that caused Philadelphia Coach Dolph Schayes to life his star in the fourth quarter Tuesday night.
The Knicks were leading 125-102 with just over six minutes left when Chamberlain was summoned to the bench — one of the rare times he has been taken out of a game for a rest. The final score was 136-123.
The game was part of a National Basketball Association doubleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden, which saw the San Francisco Warriors beat the Detroit Pistons 113-103 in the opener.
In the only other game, the Cincinnati Royals defeated the Baltimore Bullets 128-113 and moved into second place in the Eastern Division, one-half game ahead of the 76ers and 2½ behind the Boston Celtics.
Despite Chamberlain's 38 points, the Warriors just couldn't cope with the tremendous shooting of the Knicks, who defeated Philadelphia for the second consecutive time and ran their winning streak to four in a row — the first time they have won that many straight since December 1962.

Execution Is Set for March 4

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus has set March 4 as the execution date for Frank Harris, 58, the state Pardon and Parole office said Tuesday.
Harris was convicted for the slaying of the Leonard Dever family Dec. 28, 1963, near Trumann.
Faubus signed the execution just before he left for a vacation in Florida. It will be the first execution at the Tucker Prison Farm since Feb. 24, 1964, when Charles Fields died in the electric chair.
Harris was convicted for the murder of Mrs. Dever and four of her six children. The state charged that Harris shot and killed Dever and then set fire to the Dever house to cover up the crime.

One Robin Does Not Make Spring

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — One robin doesn't make a spring but heavyweights Cleveland Williams indicated in his comeback fight Tuesday night that he's none the worse for wear from being out of the game for 14 months with a gunshot wound.
Williams made his first start since an altercation with a Texas highway patrolman sent him to a hospital with a wound that was expected to end his boxing career.
He appeared as good as ever as he knocked out Ben Black of Chicago in the first round of a scheduled 10-rounder.
Williams weighed 214, Black 233.
Williams was ranked No. 2 by the World Boxing Association when he was shot.

Georgians Are High on Braves' Move

By RON SPEER
Associated Press Sports Writer
ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Mayor Ivan Allen says Georgians are ready to prove that "the Braves' move to Atlanta was the best thing that has happened to baseball since Ty Cobb."
Wisconsin officials fighting the National League baseball team's transfer out of Milwaukee undoubtedly disagree with the Atlanta mayor who says he no longer has any questions about where the Braves will play in 1966.
A ruling by Fulton Superior Court Judge Sam Phillips McKenzie Tuesday "ends for all time, so far as Atlanta and the Southeast are concerned, any questions about the future of the Atlanta Braves," Allen said.
McKenzie ordered the Braves to disregard a Wisconsin court order and comply with a 25-year contract which calls for them to play their home games in Atlanta.
"From here on, the success of the Braves and the success of Atlanta and the Southeast as a showplace for major league baseball is up to the people of Atlanta and Georgia," Allen said.
"I want the sports writers in Milwaukee and Chicago and New York who have been crying about the Milwaukee fans — who let the Braves down except when they were pennants — to come down here to our town and see real baseball fans cheering a real baseball team, season after season, never deserting them, win or lose," Allen said.
Wisconsin officials, contending that the Braves and the National League violated the state's antitrust laws, have filed suit against the team. A Wisconsin court last month ordered the Braves to prepare to play their games in Milwaukee in 1966.
McKenzie, in his ruling in Georgia Superior Court, said he was reluctant to pass an order "which might conflict with an order of a court of another sovereign state."
"This judicial reluctance cannot, however, justify this court's shirking, however distasteful, a duty imposed," Judge McKenzie said, and added that the Braves' contract with Atlanta is a "valid, binding, legal contract" regardless of court action taken in Wisconsin.

State AJBA Meets at Jacksonville

The Arkansas Junior Bowling Association, chartered Sept. 12, 1965, held its first annual meeting and election of officers on Saturday and Sunday, Feb. 5 and 6 at Jacksonville Air Force Base N.C.O. Club with about 100 people from all sections of the state attending.
President Sgt. Robert Riley opened the meeting, giving a talk on the dos and don'ts of Junior Bowling. He introduced Henry Preston, National JBA Field Representative of Dallas, Texas, who explained what constitutes an amateur standing in Junior Bowling.
All officers were re-elected with the exception of Charter President Sgt. Bob Riley, who is awaiting orders for overseas duty. ## Lions Bench Player for First Time

DETROIT, (AP) — For the first time in their 31-year history the Detroit Lions have suspended a player.
Veteran end Gail Cogdill was given an indefinite suspension, by the National Football League club Tuesday for remarks he reportedly made about the club's head coach, Harry Gilmer, its management and about other players on the team.
Gilmer, announcing the suspension in a two-paragraph statement backed by club owner William Clay Ford and General Manager Edwin Anderson, said, "After a thorough investigation of remarks publicly made by Cogdill at a meeting in Flint (Mich.) last Wednesday, the weight of the evidence is that he did make positive statements detrimental to the best interests of the Detroit Lions management, its coaches, some of its players in particular, and to professional football in general."
Gilmer said he took the action against Cogdill with regret.

Sinatra Popular in Great Britain

LONDON (AP)—Twelve years ago Frank Sinatra topped Britain's popular music listings with his recording of "Three Coins in the Fountain."

His daughter, Nancy, 25, turned in a great performance for the Sinatra family Monday with the disc "These Boots are Made for Walkin'."

Connie Francis was the last American girl to be top of the pops in Britain. That was eight years ago.

Venturi May Not Play at Phoenix

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Ken Venturi says he may have to pass up the $60,000 Phoenix Open Golf Tournament which begins Thursday because his hands are bothering him again.

Venturi, winner of this year's Lucky International at San Francisco, came off a practice round Tuesday complaining of cold hands caused by a circulatory ailment.

"Even with gloves, my hands hurt," said Venturi. "I'm colder here than I was in San Francisco. If it gets colder I may not be able to play."

More than one-half inch of rain fell in Phoenix during a 24-hour period which ended Tuesday and a blast of wintry weather has sent temperatures not much above freezing.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Treat Your Snow Thrower Carefully---It Can Bite

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Labor-saving devices have a great appeal for modern man. For example, instead of shoveling snow, it now is possible to clear your walk or driveway with a power-operated snow thrower.

Like the power lawn mower, however, these machines have a malevolent side. Many fingers that would have given good service for years have been permanently removed by snow throwers. Some persons operating these machines have slipped and sent a foot into the whirling blades.

Such accidents rarely happen when the snow is dry and powdery, but wet, sticky snow can clog the blades and the chute. When this happens any attempt to clear the snow without stopping the motor is likely to end in disaster. The National Safety Council offers the following rules for operating your snow remover:

- Follow the instructions that come with the machine.
- Before using it in the snow learn how to stop the motor or throw the blades out of gear.
- Keep children and pets away from the machine when it is in operation.
- Never leave it unattended when the motor is running.

- Never fill the fuel tank, remove foreign objects or snow, or make any kind of mechanical adjustments with the engine running.
- Never run the motor indoors.
- Don't operate the machine on ice or sloping ground because this may lead to a fall against the blades.

Q—Is it possible to have had syphilis in the blood for 23 years without any symptoms? My blood test was reported positive. I told the doctor there must be a mistake, but a second test was also positive. I am the mother of five normal, healthy kids and I don't like to be branded without cause.

A—After the first and second stages of untreated syphilis, the causative organisms (Treponema pallidum) may lurk in the walls of the blood vessels for 20 years or more and then produce the late manifestations of syphilis. There are other possibilities, however. Some persons have a false positive blood test and, when there is sufficient reason to believe this is the case, other tests should be made. Blood tests of your husband and children should also be done.

To Request Approval of GI Benefits

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Ralph W. Yarborough says he will ask the Senate to approve the house-passed GI benefits bill that would provide housing and educational aid for veterans.

The House passed the bill Monday by a 381-0 vote and returned it to the Senate where a more costly version was approved last year.

Yarborough, Texas Democrat who steered the measure through the Senate, said the House version will be presented with only one minor change. The change, acceptable to House sponsors, would make certain that the education benefits would be applicable to servicemen who have not completed their high school education.

All persons who have served more than six months on active military duty since the Korean GI bill expired Jan. 31, 1955, would be eligible for benefits under the House version.

The major difference between the Senate and House measures is that the Senate's would pay higher education grants. The House provided for payments ranging from $100 to $150, depending on the number of dependents. The Senate range was $110 to $163.

While both bills would provide for 36 months of education — a complete college course — two years of active duty would assure full eligibility under the Senate bill and three years would be required under the House measure.

Education payments would be made directly to veterans and would start next June. The schooling could be spread over a period of eight years and the veteran could choose his own school.

Neither bill carries a retroactivity clause. Veterans who served after Jan. 31, 1935, and paid their own education expenses would not be reimbursed, but they could receive benefits and go back to school if they wished.

The House measure would set up a permanent program of benefits. The Senate measure was tied to the draft law which must be implemented again next year.

Both measures would be more costly than the administration proposed. The administration wanted benefits limited to combat veterans at an estimated annual cost of $110 million. The first-year price tag on the House bill is $331 million, nearly $100 million below the Senate cost.

Other provisions of the House measure acceptable to Senate sponsors would provide for direct or guaranteed loans for the purchase of homes or farms, limited medical care for non-service disabilities and higher rental guarantees for men drafted while renting homes.

Weakness in Two Bid Convention

By JACOBY & SON 1965 Vanderbilt Cup Winners Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

North-South vulnerable

South West North East

2 ♠ 3 ♠ Pass 5 ♠

6 ♠ Pass Pass Pass

Opening lead—♠ K.

The Jacobys wind up their discussion of weak two bids by showing a weakness of the forcing two-club.

Oswald: "The two-club bid has the same weakness that all artificial bids have. Your opponents can jam your bidding."

Jim: "I saw a good example just the other day in a rubber bridge game. South opened two clubs and West started the traffic jam by jumping to three spades. North could do nothing but pass, whereupon East decided to really make things tough for South by jumping to five spades. East thought he was making an advance sacrifice bid but actually, West would make five spades unless North opened a trump and South let North gain the lead with a club in order to lead a second trump."

Oswald: "Sacrifice or not, it made no difference to South. South wouldn't double any five spade bid when he appeared to have 12 tricks in his hand. Of course, South went to six hearts."

Jim: "He sure did. West passed. He hoped to beat six hearts and East passed also. He knew he was going to beat six hearts but wasn't at all sure about seven diamonds or seven clubs."

Oswald: "He might really have struck oil if he had doubled. South probably would not have run out but North might have gone to seven diamonds."

Jim: "East and West did well enough as it was. South could only make his six trumps and minor suit aces, and was down four. He could have made six clubs by better play, so it was quite a loss."

Oswald: "A forcing two-heart opening would have brought him to that nice spot but, in that case, East would probably have saved at six spades and any profit is better than a 1955 and South would have certainly set six spades."

Practical Side of Getting a Good Education

One million students will drop out of public school this year — a disheartening report for knowledgeable citizens who recognize that a good education is a "must" in this scientific age.

Government recognizes the problem, but one of the most worthwhile campaigns to combat drop-outs is being conducted by a voluntary private group. It is headed by Charles R. Corcoran, an Equitable Life vice-president, who as a voluntary co-ordinator for the Labor Department's "Continue Your Education" drive, is working with the Advertising Council, Inc.

Some of the things this voluntary group is telling the youngsters may sound familiar and trite — but you have to be familiar and trite when dealing with kids not sharp enough to see what's ahead for them in today's technically-organized world. It's like a big sign, "Danger," in front of a blasting operation — trite but true.

One of the things Mr. Corcoran's group is telling the kids is that by and large your earnings in an adult world are geared to how many years you have spent in school. Not always, of course, but on the national average.

If you've had less than 5 years' schooling you aren't likely to earn more than a little above $2,500. But with 12 years — a high school diploma — the average jumps to nearly $7,500. And with 16 years of schooling — a college diploma — you have a chance to approach $10,000.

The actual figures vary between big towns and small ones, and between different sections of the country — but the ratio between uneducated and educated works out the same everywhere.

There are satisfactions besides money in getting an education, of course — a reminder that is unnecessary for the youngster with an alert and inquiring mind. But the money picture, trite as it is, also is true — and it may be the best device after all with which to put a message through to kids who are thinking about dropping out of school.

If they think school is tough and quit it they'll find out in later years that school was the one secure and satisfying island in a sea of insecurity and frustration.

Whitbeck Will Not Be Candidate

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Frank Whitbeck, saying he had considered every angle, has withdrawn his name as a possible gubernatorial candidate.

"I feel in fairness to all my fellow Democrats that I should not permit my name to be used further unless I am to be an active candidate," Whitbeck said Tuesday in a prepared statement.

Whitbeck, 49, of Little Rock said, "Because of my personal commitments which I do not wish to relinquish at this time, I cannot be a candidate."

He is the president of the American Foundation Life Insurance Co., which he founded. Whitbeck said he had sought counsel from persons whose opinion he respected. He said he had received some encouraging encouragement, but personal commitments prevented his running for governor.

Snowden to India on Assignment

NEW DELHI (AP)—The husband of Britain's Princess Margaret is on a three-week assignment in India as a photographer.

A British spokesman confirmed that Lord Snowden will make a tour of India to do a photo feature for the Sunday Times of London.

Distress Call Is False, Sentenced

BOSTON (AP)—A man who sent a false distress call over a citizens band radio has been sentenced to one year in a federal prison.

Richard F. Conefry, 24, of Brockton, Mass., was convicted of sending a message April 23, 1965, that a vessel was sinking in Yarmouth Harbor.

Little Hope for Youths Trying to Avoid Draft

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A poll of National Guard and military reserve units shows little hope for young men who hope to avoid the draft by joining one of the units.

In the past, many men facing induction have joined a Guard or reserve unit and served either four or six months active duty and attended summer camps for two weeks and weekly drills.

Maj. James R. Burdell, personnel officer of the Arkansas National Guard, says the recent re-organization of the reserve forces and an increase in draft quotas has placed a shortage on vacancies in guard and reserve units.

The Arkansas Gazette, a Little Rock newspaper, polled reserve units Monday and Tuesday. The results indicate that young men faced with induction had better be prepared to serve for two years.

The newspaper polled guard and reserve units of the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines with results essentially the same — long waiting lists for few openings.

Burdell said there is a backlog of Guardsmen awaiting active duty training and that it affects the efficiency of units because the non-trained men cannot perform their duties on a par with those who have served their active duty.

Many military posts don't have openings for Guardsmen because of the increased draft quotas and active duty enlistments.

The Air National Guard said it could accept a young man with no military training only if a vacancy exists and Air Force reserve units in the state are accepting only men who have already performed their active duty.

An officer at the Little Rock Navy and Marine Reserve Training Center said that only young men who qualify for the Navy Reserve Officer Candidate program can be enlisted. He said this eliminates probably 80 per cent of the applicants.

A spokesman for the Marine Corps Reserve said, "We're at the saturation point."

Accused of Affair With Her Nephew

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Blonde Candace Mossler, her patience waning, faces a no-wedding day. The state will be spotlighting what it says is the motive for the murder of her multimillionaire husband — an illicit affair with her nephew.

"It's a mean, nasty case, your honor," State Atty. Richard Gerstein told circuit Judge George Schulz with a visible air of resignation Tuesday after a day of turbulent, legal infighting.

Today could prove to be even more trying than Tuesday's session, which ended with Mrs. Mossler shaking her head and hissing "liar" at state witnesses.

She declined to pin itself down on today's witness lineup. But on call were residents of Houston, Tex. The attractive Mrs. Mossler, who gives her age as 39, sprang to social prominence there with the help of her slain husband's $33-million banking and loan empire.

Mrs. Mossler and her nephew, Melvin Lane Powers, 29, are charged with slaying her 69-year-old husband, Jacques. Time and again, Judge Schulz sent the all-male jury out of the courtroom while he patiently smoothed out roaring legal clashes between the state and the defense.

It was almost anticlimactic when state testimony ended with the soft voice of Miss Cleo Cossuegra, 21, who used her maiden name although now married. A bad check charge placed her in the Dade County jail last August when Mrs. Mossler became a temporary inmate, before gaining release in $50,000 bail.

"I was her bunkmate, I had a bunk over her," said Miss Cossuegra, a tall black-haired woman.

"We talked a lot," she testified. First she told her husband was a homosexual.

Orders New Trial in Murder Case

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
CHARLESTON, Ark. (AP)—A new trial was ordered Tuesday night for John Davis Pruitt, 33, of Booneville after a Franklin Circuit Court jury failed to reach a verdict in a second-degree murder case.

Circuit Judge Carl Creekmore did not set a date for a new trial.

Pruitt was charged in the fatal shooting of Johnny Harris in a cafe at Paris, Harris, 40, was from Branch in Franklin County. Police said the shooting occurred last Dec. 10 following an argument.

Economists Air Tax Hikes and Inflation

By STERLING F. GREEN
WASHINGTON (AP)—Front-rank economists debate today whether inflation can be headed off with the weapons President Johnson is using—short-term tax boosts and the voluntary wage-price guidelines.

Critics and defenders of administration policy were to be heard at an all-day "National Symposium on Inflation, Guideposts and Economic Policy," sponsored by the United States Chamber of Commerce.

The inflation problem was spotlighted anew with the official announcement Tuesday that unemployment in January dropped to a nine-year low of 4 per cent. Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz predicted it will dip to 3½ per cent this year.

The increasing difficulty of maintaining price-wage stability as the economy nears full employment has been acknowledged by the President's Council of Economic Advisers. The council has insisted, however, that recent living-cost increases are not inflationary.

Economist Otto Eckstein, who retired from the President's council last week to return to Harvard University, was expected to argue that viewpoint as a member of today's panel.

Other scheduled participants were Dr. Arthur F. Burns, president of the National Bureau of Economic Research, New York, who headed the council under President Dwight D. Eisenhower; Dr. Paul A. Samuelson, professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and adviser to President John F. Kennedy; and Walter D. Fackler, associate dean of the University of Chicago's Graduate School.

Burns and Fackler were expected to concur in criticism which has been voiced by some Republicans in Congress, that Johnson's record spending budget carries inflationary hazards in an economy already approaching full utilization of manpower and machines.

Administration spokesmen have contended that the President's stop-gap tax program, which Congress is considering, will offset the inflationary impact of stepped-up military spending this year.

The fiscal 1967 budget, they point out, will have so small a deficit — $1.8 billion — as to be approximately neutral in economic impact.

Brinkley Okays Bond Issue

BRINKLEY, Ark. (AP)—Voters here approved Tuesday a $190,000 bond issue to finance construction of a $90,000 city hall. The issue, which included some refunding bonds, passed 357 to 335.

Voters also approved a $17,500 bond issue to remodel the present city hall into a fire station. The vote was 401-296.

A $7,500 park improvement bond issue failed by a vote of 345 to 348. The issue would have been matched by federal funds.

AT&T Gets Big U.S. Contract

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., notified officials here Tuesday that International Telephone and Telegraph Co. will get a $13 million military equipment contract.

Fulbright said the contract of the Navy Bureau of Ships will be for portable transmitters, receiver and accessory kits to be used at International's Camden plant.

February's Freeze-Out

Temperatures from below to much below normal are the outlook for most of the nation with only the northeast and northwest corners left out of the frigid forecast.

Heavy precipitation is in store for much of the nation with exceptions of upper Mississippi valley and Great Lakes states, the Pacific Northwest and a slice of Texas.

Arnold Is Candidate for Congress

The Hope Star is authorized to announce the candidacy of Richard S. Arnold, Texarkana, for the office of United States Congress, 4th District, subject to the Democratic Primary on Tuesday, March 15, 1966.

As I have stated before, I am a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Congress from Arkansas's Fourth District. I shall run for this office regardless of the form the election may take. I shall formally file just as soon as the legal uncertainties as to the time and manner of the election are resolved.

My campaign will be straightforward, without tricks, gimmicks, and promises that cannot be kept. My ambition is simply to talk sense to the people of South Arkansas, trusting in their sovereign wisdom. To that end, I invite the people to examine me and my positions. If they believe another's qualifications are superior, I would not expect them to vote for me.

Qualifications: I will be 30 years old in March. My age is the right one for the commencement of a congressional career — old enough to have gained sound judgment, young enough to gain power for South Arkansas through congressional service. John F. Kennedy, Lyndon B. Johnson, Wilbur Mills, and Henry Clay, to name a few, were elected to Congress at age 29. And David, to take a Biblical example, was anointed King of all Israel at 30.

My education is also an important qualification. I am a graduate of Yale College and Harvard Law School, standing first in my class at both schools. Unlike many others, I did not go outside Arkansas to get an education or use elsewhere. Rather I returned home to offer my education and my talents in the service of the people.

I have been a member of the Arkansas Bar for five years, standing first on the July, 1960, Bar Examination. I am also admitted to practice in Washington, D.C., and did practice law there for three years, during which time I gained valuable experience in the workings of our Federal Government. I am engaged in the active practice of law with the Firm of Arnold & Arnold in Texarkana, where my family has practiced law since 1833.

Political Principles: First I am a Democrat. I voted and worked for the entire Democratic ticket in 1964, and will continue to do so. My uncle W. H. Arnold Jr., with whom I am associated in the practice of law, has served as Chairman of the Democratic Party of Missouri.

Viet Nam Civic Reform Stepup Result of Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Johnson returned today from the Honolulu conference confident "we shall prevail" in the battle against aggression in Viet Nam. He says he will meet again with South Vietnamese leaders "within the next few months."

Declaring he felt "refreshed and confident" from his talks with top Vietnamese officials, Johnson said in a statement during a Los Angeles stopover Tuesday night that they know social and political progress "cannot wait until the guns grow silent and terrorism stops."

During his 105-minute Los Angeles stop, Johnson conferred with Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, then wished him Godspeed on a mission to Saigon to spur the political, economic and social programs outlined at Honolulu.

Johnson then headed back to Washington in the presidential jet which had carried him to Hawaii last Saturday. Within two minutes of the President's takeoff, Humphrey was off across the Pacific on his way to Honolulu to join the South Vietnamese leaders for the trip to Saigon. The vice president also plans to visit some additional Asian capitals.

Too Much Faith in Officials

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP)—Rep. David Pryor of Ouachita County said Tuesday that he thinks the average citizen "puts too much faith in the infallibility of his elected officials."

Pryor, a candidate for Congress from the 4th District, told a Pine Bluff civic club that the trend today is "to leave government up to the politicians and for the average layman to look upon it as a specialty in which he is a non-participant."

Pryor said that democracy could come day beyond our grasp if political participation by persons "is below our dignity."

He said persons could easily wire, phone or sign a petition expressing an opinion and send it to a legislator.

"But the ones I have always craved and paid most attention to are those communications written on a yellowed piece of paper with a stubby lead pencil signed by husband and wife," he said.

City Seeking Federal Aid for Projects

Hope City Board last night set up regulations governing a TV cable franchise and took several steps to get federal money for several proposed city projects.

The group employed Don Maness as a planning consultant to survey and make application for federal money on urban renewal projects. The survey cost was limited to $2,000.

A motion was passed to co-operate with the Housing Authority in connection with securing money for a recreational center of the Senior Citizens organization.

A resolution was authorized for the filing of applications with Economic Development Administration in an effort to secure federal aid on local projects pertaining primarily to water, sewage projects and access roads.

There was no objection to the formation of an improvement district on Shover Street so the group will set up the district. There was some discussion about a sidewalk on Walker St. to the high school and stop and yield signs were authorized for city streets.

Peace Hopes Chilled by Minh's Letter

By JOE MCGOWAN JR.
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Indian government today chilled hopes that a letter from North Viet Nam's President Ho Chi Minh may have contained the peace talk signal awaited by the Johnson administration.

In the midst of worldwide speculation over the meaning of Ho's Jan. 24 message to Indian President Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan, an official government spokesman said it was "mostly concerned with stating the position of his country."

Except for emphasizing India's special position as chairman of the International Control Commission, the Indochina peacekeeping agency, Ho did no tgo beyond previous proclamations from Hanoi, the spokesman said.

Nevertheless, he said, India was continuing its talks with "friendly countries" to find a way to end the fighting.

Jet Attacks in N. Viet Nam Stepped Up

By THOMAS A. REEDY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—U.S. jet fighter-bombers stepped up their attacks in North and South Viet Nam today while the Viet Cong still sidestepped the big Allied ground forces trying to hunt them down.

While the ground war tapered off significantly, the U.S. Military Command announced that the number of Americans killed in combat last week rose by more than 50 per cent. A spokesman said 89 Americans were killed, 499 wounded and eight missing in action compared with 57 Americans killed, 281 wounded and 11 missing in the previous seven days.

In separate sweeps, American and Australian troops stumbled onto Viet Cong caches of rice totaling 335 tons — enough to feed thousands of men for weeks — and stores of howitzer ammunition.

In Vientiane, capital of neighboring Laos, a spokesman for the Laotian Defense Ministry reported North Vietnamese tanks had been seen for the first time on the Ho Chi Minh Trail through eastern Laos, en route to South Viet Nam. Qualified military sources in Saigon, however, were skeptical of the report. They said tanks might be more of a liability than an asset to the Viet Cong.

The Strategic Air Command's eight-engine B52s from Guam joined the air offensive in the past 24 hours, pounding Viet Cong concentrations in Tay Ninh Province near the Cambodian border and in Phu Yen Province on the central plains, U.S. spokesmen said.

No American planes were reported lost in the double-barreled air action on both sides of the 17th Parallel.

The 7th Fleet carriers Ticonderoga and Ranger sent 17 jet missions against the North. The Navy planes smashed four road and rail bridges and cut several highways in the Dong Hoi and Vinh areas, spokesmen said. Pilots claimed they destroyed the Tam Da highway bridge, where reconnaissance planes spotted heavy southbound traffic during the 37-day bombing pause.

Air Force F105 Thunderchiefs and F4C Phantoms cratered roads, damaged two bridges and blasted a truck pool area south of Vinh and in the Thanh Hoa sector on 10 combat missions over North Viet Nam, spokesmen said.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould are spending their furlough in Hamilton, and Austin, Texas where he is taking courses at Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. They expect to return to Congo in June of 1966.

The Rev. James A. Mitchell of Hot Springs will also be present and he will speak briefly.

Bennet Out of Congress Race

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett said Tuesday that he would not run for Congress this year because he is rearing a family and would rather do so in Arkansas than in Washington.

"For that reason, I now publicly state that I will not be a candidate for Congress this year," Bennett said.

He said many voters had encouraged him to become a candidate in the special election to name a successor to Oren Harris, who resigned as representative of the 4th District to become a federal judge.
